This Hindi movie, the debut film of Jash Bhirrana, is a story of a single man named Qarib and his experiences with love and relationships. The movie, starring Amole Gupte, Preity Zinta, Jaya Prada and Manjinder Sandhu, was released in theatres on 11 January 2007. The movie was a critical success and received many awards for the performances of Gupte and Zinta. Storyline Qarib lives with his loving parents, Bhagwati and Chanda. Qarib wants to get married and is in love with Aastha. However, Aastha loves Qarib's best friend, Shraddha. Qarib meets Gyan, a young man with mental illness, at Bhagwati's sangeet party. Gyan reveals the dark truth that his life is filled with agony, and that the only person who can console him is a person from his past. As Qarib gives him a chance, Qarib is drawn into the life of Gyan. Gyan soon becomes a part of Qarib's life and they grow closer as Qarib helps Gyan come out of his depression. He accompanies Gyan to meet his sister, Shraddha, for the first time. In the meantime, Qarib comes to know that Shraddha does not love him. Qarib is shocked when he learns the truth that Gyan's mental illness is due to the evil experiments done on his ancestors. Meanwhile, Shraddha is torn between her love for Qarib and her love for Gyan. Qarib eventually finds out the truth about the evil experiments that were done on
