In an important historical decision, the Supreme Court of India, on 28th November 2014, has ordered the release of Sarabjit Singh, a prisoner in the Kathua jail, Jammu, who has been on a hunger strike since 4th April 2014. Sarabjit Singh was a resident of India and is convicted of terrorism charges, involving the murder of two people and attempted murder of three other people. These murder and attempted murder cases relate to the 1984 attack on the Golden Temple in Amritsar. This is an attack that took place on and about 1st June, 1984 in the Golden Temple complex. Sarabjit Singh, a resident of Pakistan, was the one who planned the attack and allegedly executed it. During the trial, Sarabjit Singh's confession was made and he has been charged with high treason and murder. Also, Sarabjit Singh has been convicted and given the death sentence. Sarabjit Singh has been on a hunger strike for the past 19 days and had to be force-fed with a tube. It is a known fact that Sarabjit Singh is a political prisoner, as he was charged with terrorism. It is also a known fact that that he was convicted of terrorism charges and given the death sentence. Now, the above point is what irked the government and the state administration in India. They took out a march and by the next morning, the carnage had started. The terrorists killed 46 Sikhs, including 5 foreign tourists. On 19th June, 1990, Sarabjit Singh, a resident of Pakistan, was arrested by the Indian authorities and charged with murder, kidnapping and bombing. Sarabjit Singh confessed and was found guilty of terrorism charges. It is a known fact that Sarabjit Singh was charged with high treason by the Indian government. He was also held responsible for the 2 killings and 3 attempted killings of innocent people and tried, convicted and sentenced to death by the high court in the state of Punjab on 16th November, 1990. The Sikh nation, in their heart and mind, feels that Sarabjit Singh is just and fair for receiving justice. They feel that it is an injustice done
